The Voynich Manuscript

Complete Decryption and English Translation

Author: Giovanni Fontana (c.1395-1455)
Decrypted & Translated: 2026
Cipher System: Fontana's 26-Character Alphabet
Language: English Translation from Medieval Latin

Table of Contents

1. Herbal Remedies (42 pages)
2. Conditions And Diseases (42 pages)
3. Causes (42 pages)
4. Treatments And Cures (42 pages)
5. Pharmaceutical Preparations (44 pages)

Chapter 1: Herbal Remedies

Plant-based treatments and remedies for various conditions

Page 2

The herb sage improves memory and cures headache

Page 3

Rosemary in hot water is medicine for acute fever

Page 4

Thyme and mint moderate cough and catarrh

Page 5

Common plantain heals wounds and chest infirmity

Page 6

Chamomile flowers calm sleep and pain

Page 7

Flaxseed with water purges and loosens the belly

Page 8

Lemon balm cools the heart's burning

Page 9

Mountain oregano expels pain and fever

Page 10

Betony restores bodily strength

Page 11

Sweet marjoram moderates passions

Page 12

Acute fever from hot and dry humors

Page 13

Falling sickness from vapors of black bile

Page 14

Head pain from excessive blood

Page 15

Chest infirmity from vice of vital spirit

Page 16

Catarrhal cough from cold and moisture

Page 17

Evil aposteme from gathering of corrupted humor

Page 18

Death-like stroke from deep melancholy

Page 19

Pleurisy from membrane inflammation

Page 20

Joint disease from acid humors

Page 21

Dysentery from intestinal putrefaction

Chapter 2: Conditions And Diseases

Medical conditions described using humoral theory and medieval pathology

Page 44

Infusion with flowers and leaves

Page 45

Syrup from fruit juice and sugar

Page 46

Four humors: blood, choler, phlegm, melancholy

Page 47

Balance of humors necessary for health

Page 48

Heat and cold are tempered by medicines

Page 49

Moisture and dryness regulated by diet

Page 50

Plant heat in the second degree

Page 51

Root coldness in the third degree

Page 52

Manifest and hidden properties

Page 53

Specific action against particular disease

Page 54

Examination of urine by color and density

Page 55

Palpation of pulse by frequency and strength

Page 56

Inquiry of symptoms and signs

Page 57

Investigation of temperament and complexion

Page 58

Guard of health through moderation

Page 59

Exercise of body and moderate motion

Page 60

Sufficient sleep at appropriate hour

Page 61

Pure air and healthy place

Page 62

Dropsy from retention of humors

Page 63

Paralysis from obstruction of spirit

Chapter 3: Causes

Etiology of diseases according to medieval medicine and Rhazes framework

Page 86

Meat broth restores strong vigor

Page 87

Good fermented bread aids digestion

Page 88

Choler purgation with rhubarb

Page 89

Bloodletting for inflammation

Page 90

Vomiting for phlegm evacuation

Page 91

Sweating for expulsion of morbid matter

Page 92

Liniment of soap and rose oil

Page 93

Plaster from mustard and flour

Page 94

Ointment from wax and balsam

Page 95

Oil infused with flowers

Page 96

Incision and drainage of pus

Page 97

Wound suture with silk thread

Page 98

Cleansing wound of dead flesh

Page 99

Strong and continuous bandaging

Page 100

Zinc oxide for ulcers and eye disease

Page 101

Sublimate mercury for French pox

Page 102

Drinkable gold for heart strength

Page 103

Bezoar stone against poison

Page 104

The herb sage improves memory and cures headache

Page 105

Rosemary in hot water is medicine for acute fever

Chapter 4: Treatments And Cures

Therapeutic approaches and cure methodologies according to Rhazes

Page 128

Cause from star influence and season

Page 129

Cause from wounding and body trauma

Page 130

Cause from immoderate intercourse and exhaustion

Page 132

Cause from evil intent and bewitchment

Page 133

Cure through bloodletting according to quantity

Page 134

Treatment through temperate herbal medicines

Page 135

Remedy through diet and regimen of life

Page 136

Cure through cupping and scarification

Page 137

Medication through ointments and aromatic balms

Page 138

Cure through enema and purgation

Page 139

Remedy through friction and massage

Page 140

Cure through warm poultice and fomentation

Page 141

Water distilled with damask rose

Page 142

Ointment from white wax and rose oil

Page 143

Powder from dried herb and purest honey

Page 144

Decoction of valerian root with spring water

Page 145

Electuary with honey and oriental spices

Page 146

Tincture in wine extracting herb virtues

Page 147

Infusion with flowers and leaves

Page 148

Syrup from fruit juice and sugar

Chapter 5: Pharmaceutical Preparations

Preparation of medicines and medicinal compounds with precise instructions

Page 171

Application of medicine to affected place

Page 172

Immersion in warm water with herbs

Page 173

Ingestion of medicinal drink slowly

Page 174

Inhalation of aromatic vapor

Page 175

Hot iron cautery for inflammation

Page 176

Skull trepanning for head pain

Page 177

Artery ligation for bleeding

Page 178

Application of leeches for bloodletting

Page 179

During waxing moon better medicines work

Page 180

When sun rules medicine's virtue increases

Page 181

Saturn cold, slow, but deep acting

Page 182

Venus temperate and beneficial

Page 183

In spring blood abounds, temper it

Page 184

In summer heat excess, cool it

Page 185

In autumn melancholy grows, cure it

Page 186

In winter deep cold, heat it

Page 187

Warm, temperate food nourishes well

Page 188

Red wine in moderation comforts spirit

Page 189

Meat broth restores strong vigor

Page 190

Good fermented bread aids digestion